

Co-chairpersons from Drayton Valley announced for the Tour of Alberta

June 6th, 2016

DRAYTON VALLEY- The Town of Drayton Valley in partnership with the Drayton Valley Hotel and Tourism Authority will be a finishing stage for the third stage of the race.

Trina Joly and Sandra Bannard have been named the co-chairpersons to lead the Local Organizing Committee for the Drayton Valley finishing stop. Trina brings experience with the Scotty Tournament of Hearts and Sandra has had recent experience with the Shakin' in Drayton dance competition in December.

The Local Organizing Committee (LOC) will be responsible for overseeing the success of the event by providing support to the Tour of Alberta staff and LOC members. Coordination of these LOC committees will be essential to the planning, coordinating and execution of the Tour of Alberta finishing stage in Drayton Valley.

"This event will showcase Drayton Valley to the cycling world and with the assistance of volunteers from our community we will be able to have an amazing finishing stage during the race," said Co-Chair Trina Jolly.

Trina and Sandra will be assembling a local organizing committee from members in the community along with Town of Drayton Valley administration to ensure exciting and event.
