

TOWN OF DRAYTON VALLEY COUNCILLOR FAYRELL WHEELER
ELECTED TO AUMA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Town of Drayton Valley is pleased to announce that Councillor Fayrell Wheeler was voted onto the Board of Directors as the Towns West Director. Elections were held at the conclusion of the annual Alberta Urban Municipalities Association (AUMA) Conference and Tradeshow, September 28, 2018.

“It is very exciting to have a local Councillor representing Towns West at the provincial level,” commended Mayor Doerksen, “Councillor Wheeler is dedicated to all of her many positions, and will do an amazing job ensuring the voice of towns across this province are heard.”

In her speech, Councillor Wheeler addressed the importance of innovation and collaboration with the provincial government and amongst Albertan municipalities. She assured her dedication to represent Towns West with a strong, smart, and innovative voice.

The Alberta Urban Municipalities Association (AUMA) represents 85% of urban municipalities all over Alberta. The organization works to engage municipalities and develop strategic partnerships between all orders of governments in order to meet municipal needs, and provides visionary leadership, solutions-based advocacy, and service excellence.
